

WORLD SOIL DAY CELEBRATIONS

Department of Geography & Geoinformatics
Bangalore University, Bengaluru

2. Rally

A rally involving students, faculty and public was organized during the world soil day celebration held by Department of Geography & Geoinformatics, Bangalore University, Bengaluru ,India during2017. As many as 50 participants walked across the large university campus and adjoining areas with relevant banners carrying important messages about soil and the need for protection of soil. A team consisting of 20 members walked across Aralagere village which is located 30 km away from Southeast of Bangalore and organized rally and interacted with farmers. The rally created quite an excitement in view of the T-shirts specially designed for the occasion and play cards.

A few photographs of the rally is given below. The response of the public to the rally was encouraging.
